PREFACE

First of all, thanks to Allah SWT because of the help of Allah, I can complete my thesis entitled “The Effect of the Peer Feedback Technique on Students’ Writing Ability in Recount Text”

My thesis focuses on writing skills. This thesis is written to make the readers understood about the effect of peer feedback techniques on students’ writing ability, especially in recount text. Peer feedback techniques provide opportunities for students to provide feedback on friends’ writing and then correct errors in their writing. Peer feedback techniques make students aware of errors in their writing so they can correct them and make their writing better. The researcher hopes that this research can be a reference or information for English teacher in the process of teaching writing ability. The researcher realizes that the thesis still has errors and is far from perfection. In connection with the deficiencies that exist in the writing of this thesis, criticism and suggestions are needed for this thesis. Furthermore, the researcher also thanks all parties who have contributed in writing this thesis so that this thesis can be completed.
