The Independent Project/Study Program at University of Muhammadiyah Jember is one of the learning methods in the Merdeka Campus policy, providing students with the opportunity to develop innovative ideas through activities not included in the curriculum. One of the activities held is the Mountain Bike Gosil 6, organized by SL_Project and the Miftahul Ulum Islamic Boarding School in Wongsorejo. This study aims to analyze the public relations strategy of SL_Project in organizing the Mountain Bike Gosil 6 event, held at the Miftahul Ulum Islamic Boarding School Foundation in Banyuwangi, by referring to the two-way symmetrical public relations management theory. The research employed a qualitative descriptive method involving seven (7) informants. Data were collected through observation, interviews, and documentation. The event aimed to commemorate the haul of the boarding school, promote a healthy lifestyle, and encourage environmental preservation. To promote the Mountain Bike event, SL_Project utilized Facebook and WhatsApp as promotion media and established strong communication with the mountain biking community. This strategy was considered successful, as the Gosil 6 event saw an increase in participants of nearly 200% compared to previous years.
