PREFACE

Thanks to Allah for all His blessings and loves. His guidance still passed on to master the prophet Muhammad SAW, then she can finish her thesis.

This thesis is composed to make the readers understand about the effectiveness of using comic strips on students reading narrative text. In fact, many students feel reading as one of the most difficult skills in English. In order to solve this common problem, the writer used comic strips to find out whether there is significance different between the students who were taught using comic strips and the students who are not taught using comic strips.

She will hopefully give the information of using comic strips to increase students' reading comprehension achievement. This thesis will also become consideration for the English teacher to use comic strips in the teaching and learning process at the school. The writer realizes that this thesis has weakness and the corection is advised.
