Queen Aji Bidara Putih

Muara Kaman lies along the Mahakam River, in eastern Borneo. In the past the area was a kingdom ruled by Queen Aji Bidara Putih. She was a typical queen of myths: beautiful, wise, and sensitive. Many princes and kings proposed to her but she always refused them because she was more concerned with ruling her country and guarding her people.

One day, a Chinese boat came to eastern Borneo. First, the people thought it was a merchant ship but the boat was loaded with trade goods and highly trained soldiers. Their envoys brought gold and porcelain to announce the marriage proposal from a prince of China. The queen didn't refuse instantly and replied that she had to ponder the proposal first. After the envoys left the palace, the queen called a court officer and ordered him to infiltrate the Chinese boat to gather information on the prince.

When night fell the officer sneaked onto the boat, got by all the guards, and finally found the prince's room. The large door would not open and he couldn't find a peek hole, so the officer put his ear to the wall, trying to catch sounds from inside. He heard that the prince was having his dinner and the noise of his chewing and slurping surprised the officer. It was like a boar that he had once heard when he was hunting.

He quickly left the boat and returned to the palace. He reported that the prince must have been a phantom, not a human. He believed that the phantom could be in a human's form only during the daytime. The queen was so surprised and got angry. On the next day, she refused his proposal.

The enraged prince ordered his troops to raid Muara Kaman. The battle was won by the prince's huge band of troops. As they drew near to the palace, Queen Aji Bidara Putih chewed a leaf of betel vine and sang a mantra while holding it. When she threw it at the Chinese troops, it turned to giant centipedes. The Chinese troops started to retreat but three centipedes chased them and sank the boat. The site of the sunken ship is now known as Danau Lipan (Lake of Centipedes), with Chinese treasures hidden on the lake's bed.

A Woman and the Wolves

A long time ago, very few people lived in the New Territories. There were only a few villages. If the people wanted to go from one village to another, they often had to pass through wild and unsafe forest.

One day, a farmer's young wife went to the next village to visit her own mother and brother. She brought along her baby son. When it was time for her to leave, her brother said "it is getting dark. Let my son, Ah Tim go with you though the forest."

So Ah Tim led the way and the young woman followed behind, carrying her baby. When they were in the forest, suddenly they saw a group of wolves. They began to run to avoid the danger, but Ah Tim kicked against a stone and fell down. At once the wolves caught him. The young woman cried to the wolves, "please eat my own son instead." Then, she put her baby son on the ground in front of the wolves and took her nephew away.

Everyone understood that this was because the woman was very good and kind. She had offered her own son's life to save her nephew.

They ran back to the house and called for help. All men in the village fetched thick sticks and went back with her into the forest. When they got there, they saw something very strange. Instead of eating the woman's baby the wolves were playing with him.

The Lion and the Mouse

A little mouse once made the mistake of running across a sleeping lion’s nose. It tickled like crazy and woke the lion up. With one sweep of his huge paw, the lion snatched up the mouse! He opened his miuth wide and prepared to eat the mouse. “oh no, please don’t eat me!” shricked the mouse. “i’d be just a tiny snack, not fit for the king of the beasts. If only you will spare my life, i promise that i will help you if you are ever in trouble.”

A little mouse, helping the big king of beasts? That struck the lion as terribly funny. He roared with laughter, opening his jaw and letting this funny little mouse go free.

Several years passed. The mouse was busy gathering seeds when he heard a terrible roar. It was so loud and so powerful that it could only be the king of beasts. What’s more, the lion sounded really scared. The mouse scurried in the direction of the lion’s frightened roars.

When the mouse found the lion, he saw that the lion had fallen into a hunter’s trap. He was all tangled up in thick rope. The mouse began to gnaw through one of the ropes with his sharp little teeth. It took a while, but eventually he broke all the ropes and the lion was free.

“i kept my promise!” said the mouse to the lion. “i know i might be able to help you out sometime.”

The Story of the Smart Parrot

Text for number 48-56

A man in Puerto Rico had a wonderful parrot. There was no another parrot like it. It was very, very smart. This parrot would say any word-except one. He would not say the name of the town where he was born. The name of the town was Catano.

The man tried to teach the parrot to say Catano. But the bird would not say the word. At first the man was very nice, but then he got angry. "You are a stupid bird! Why can't you say the word? Say Catano, or I will kill you!" but the parrot would not say it. Then the man got to so angry that the shouted over and over, "Say Catano, or I'll kill you!" but the bird would not talk.

One day after trying for many hours to make the bird say Catano, the man got very angry. He picked up the bird and threw him into the chicken house. "You are more stupid than the chickens. Soon I will eat them, and I will eat you, too."

In the chicken house there are four old chickens. They were for Sunday's dinner. The man put the parrot in the chicken house and left.

The next day the man came back to the chicken house. He opened the door and stopped. He was very surprised at what he saw!

He saw three dead chickens on the floor. The parrot was screaming at the fourth chicken, "Say Catano, or I'll kill you!"

The Good Stepmother

The old witch locked Hansel in a cage and set Gretel to clean the house. She planned to eat them both. Each night the children cried and begged the witch to let them go.

Meanwhile, at home, their stepmother was beginning to wish she had never tried to get rid of the children. "I must find them," she said and set off into the forest.

Many hours later, when her feet were tired from walking and her lips were dry from thirst, she came to the cottage belonging to the witch. The stepmother peeped through the window. Her heart cried out when she saw the two children.

She picked up the broom leaning against the door and crept inside. The witch was putting some stew in the oven when the stepmother gave her an almighty push. The witch fell into the oven and the stepmother shut the door.

'Children, I have come to save you,' she said hugging them tightly. I have done a dreadful thing.

I hope in time you will forgive me. Let me take you home and become a family again. They returned to their home and the stepmother became the best mother anyone could wish to have, and of course they lived happily ever after!

The Magic Box

Once upon a time, there was a poor farmer who lived with his wife. One day, he dug up his field and found a big box. He took it home with him and showed it to his wife. His wife cleaned the box and kept it in their house.

One sunny morning his wife dropped an apple into it. Suddenly the box began fill up with apples. No matter how many the apples were taken out, more apples took their place, So the farmer and his wife decide to sell the apples and in short time they were able to live quite comfortably.

One day, the farmer dropped a gold coin into the box. At once, apples disappeared and the box began to fill itself with coins. Everyday, the farmer and his wife collected hundreds of gold coins from the box. Soon they became very rich.

Having heard that his son had gone rich, the farmer's grandfather visited the couple. He was not very strong and he could not go out to work anymore. So the farmer asked the old man to help him take the money out of the box. When his grandfather told his son that he was tired and wanted to have arrest, the farmer shouted at him," why are you so lazy? Why can't you work harder?"

The old man didn't say anything, and continued to work until he fell into the box and suddenly died. At once, the money disappeared and the box began to fill up with dead grandfathers.

The farmer had to pull them out and bury them. To do this, he had to spend all the money he had collected. When he had used up all the money, the box broke and the farmer was just as poor as he was before.

Appendix 10

Reliability of the Text

$$\begin{aligned}
 r_{xy} &= \frac{N \sum XY - (\sum X)(\sum Y)}{\sqrt{(N \sum X^2 - (\sum X)^2)(N \sum Y^2 - (\sum Y)^2)}} \\
 &= \frac{28 \times 10716 - (523)(548)}{\sqrt{(28 \times 10573 - (523)^2)(28 \times 11494 - (548)^2)}} \\
 &= \frac{300.048 - 286.604}{\sqrt{(295.036 - 273.529)(321.832 - 300.304)}} \\
 &= \frac{13.444}{\sqrt{(21.507)(21.519)}} \\
 &= \frac{13.444}{21.512.9992} = 0.62 \\
 r_{11} &= \frac{2 \times r^{1/2} \times r^{1/2}}{(1 + r^{1/2} \times r^{1/2})} \\
 r_{11} &= \frac{2 \times 0.62}{1 + 0.62} = \frac{1.24}{1.62} = 0.76
 \end{aligned}$$

The result of the correlation coefficient of the test is 0,76 (0,71 – 0, 90) and it means that the test is high reliable.

Lesson Plan 1

Meeting 1 (cycle 1)

School Level : Junior High School

Subject : English

Class/ Semester : VIII/II

Aspect / Skill : Reading

Genre : Narrative

Time : 2 x 40 minutes

A. Competence Standard

1. Understanding the meaning of Narrative text to interact with surrounding environment.

B. Basic Competence

- 1.1 Reading aloud the Narrative text to the environment.
- 1.2 Responds the meaning of short simple functional texts accurately, properly, and acceptable to interact with the surrounding environment in the form of narrative text.

C. Indicators

1. Identifying the character
2. Identifying the moral value
3. Identifying word comprehension.
4. Identifying text comprehension.
5. Identifying paragraph comprehension

D. Material

- Narrative Text

The Bear and Two Friends

Once two friends were walking through the forest. They knew that anything dangerous can happen to them at any time in the forest. So they promised each other that they would remain united in any case of danger.

Suddenly, they saw a large bear approaching them. One of the friends at once climbed a nearby tree. But the other one did not know how to climb. So being led by his common sense, he lay down on the ground breathless, pretending to be a dead man.

The bear came near the man lying on the ground. It smelt in his ears, and slowly left the place. Because the bears do not touch the dead creatures. Now the friend on the tree came down and asked his friend on the ground, "Friend, what did the bear tell you into your ears?" The other friend replied, "The bear advised me not to believe a false friend."

The Rabbit and The Lion

Long time ago a rabbit and a lion were neighbors. The lion was very proud, and was fond of boasting about his strength. And though they were such close neighbors, the lion looked down upon the rabbit, and used to bully and frighten her. Finally, the rabbit could stand it no longer and wanted to get her own back.

One day, she went to the lion and said, "Good day".

Respected elder brother. Imagine it, i met an animal over there who looked exactly like you, and he said to me, "Is there anyone in the world who dares stand up to me? If there is, let him come and have a duel with me. If there is no one, all of you have to submit to my rule and be my servants!" "Oh, he was an can't even light on anyone!", added the rabbit.

"Oho," the lion said, "Didn't you mention me to him?"

"Yes, indeed," the rabbit replied, "But it would have been better if I hadn't. When I described how strong you were, he just sneered and said dreadfully rude things. He even went so far as to say that wouldn't take you for his attendant!"

The lion flew into a rage and roared, "Where is her? Where is her?"

So the rabbit took the lion behind a hill and, not going too near herself. Pointed to a deep well from a distance, and said, "He is down there, in the well".

The lion hastened to the well and glared angrily into it. Yes, there was his rival who even glared back at him angrily. The lion roared, and his enemy roared back. The lion became so furious that his hair stood on end. So did his enemy's in the well. The lion showed his teeth and lashed out with his paws to scare his rival – and his enemy in the well retaliated! In a fit of anger the lion sprang into the air with all his might and then flung himself at the enemy in the well. The result was that the proud lion was instantly drowned.

The Wind and the Sun

One day, the Wind and the Sun got into an argument. "I'm much stronger than you," said the Sun. "Oh, really?" said the Wind. "I can bend tall trees. I can scream and howl and make all sorts of racket. You just sit there, with that goofy smile of yours. You can't move anything. You don't make any noise."

"Well then, let's have a contest," said the Sun. "That will decide who is truly stronger." At that moment, a man wearing a coat was walking along a country road.

"Okay, here are the rules," continued the Sun. "Whichever one of us can get that coat off that man is strongest."

"Fair enough," said the Wind

"You go first," said the Sun. The Sun politely ducked behind a cloud and the Wind began to blow. She huffed and she puffed. The man simply pulled his coat closer around him. So the wind began to howl, causing dust to swirl and twigs to fly. But the man pulled his coat around him tighter still!

"My turn," said the Sun. The Sun came out from behind the cloud. He beamed down on the man. He covered the man in light, bathed him in warmth. The man smiled up at the Sun, happy that the cold, harsh wind had died down. It as even getting rather hot walking along this country road. So the man took off his coat.

The Sun turned to the Wind. "Watch and learn, old friend," said the Sun. "Watch and learn."

Queen Aji Bidara Putih

Muara Kaman lies along the Mahakam River, in eastern Borneo. In the past the area was a kingdom ruled by Queen Aji Bidara Putih. She was a typical queen of myths: beautiful, wise, and sensitive. Many princes and kings proposed to her but she always refused them because she was more concerned with ruling her country and guarding her people.

One day, a Chinese boat came to eastern Borneo. First, the people thought it was a merchant ship but the boat was loaded with trade goods and highly trained soldiers. Their envoys brought gold and porcelain to announce the marriage proposal from a prince of China. The queen didn't refuse instantly and replied that she had to ponder the proposal first. After the envoys left the palace, the queen called a court officer and ordered him to infiltrate the Chinese boat to gather information on the prince.

When night fell the officer sneaked onto the boat, got by all the guards, and finally found the prince's room. The large door would not open and he couldn't find a peek hole, so the officer put his ear to the wall, trying to catch sounds from inside. He heard that the prince was having his dinner and the noise of his chewing and slurping surprised the officer. It was like a boar that he had once heard when he was hunting.

He quickly left the boat and returned to the palace. He reported that the prince must have been a phantom, not a human. He believed that the phantom could be in a human's form only during the daytime. The queen was so surprised and got angry. On the next day, she refused his proposal.

The enraged prince ordered his troops to raid Muara Kaman. The battle was won by the prince's huge band of troops. As they drew near to the palace, Queen Aji Bidara Putih chewed a leaf of betel vine and sang a mantra while holding it. When she threw it at the Chinese troops, it turned to giant centipedes. The Chinese troops started to retreat but three centipedes chased them and sank the boat. The site of the sunken ship is now known as Danau Lipan (Lake of Centipedes), with Chinese treasures hidden on the lake's bed.

A Woman and the Wolves

A long time ago, very few people lived in the New Territories. There were only a few villages. If the people wanted to go from one village to another, they often had to pass through wild and unsafe forest.

One day, a farmer's young wife went to the next village to visit her own mother and brother. She brought along her baby son. When it was time for her to leave, her brother said " it is getting dark. Let my son, Ah Tim go with you though the forest."

So Ah Tim led the way and the young woman followed behind, carrying her baby. When they were in the forest, suddenly they saw a group of wolves. They began to run to avoid the danger, but Ah Tim kicked against a stone and fell down. At once the wolves caught him. The young woman cried to the wolves, " please eat my own son instead." Then, she put her baby son on the ground in front of the wolves and took her nephew away.

Everyone understood that this was because the woman was very good and kind. She had offered her own son's life to save her nephew.

They ran back to the house and called for help. All men in the village fetched thick sticks and went back with her into the forest. When they got there, they saw something very strange. Instead of eating the woman's baby the wolves were playing with him.

The Lion and the Mouse

A little mouse once made the mistake of running across a sleeping lion's nose. It tickled like crazy and woke the lion up. With one sweep of his huge paw, the lion snatched up the mouse! He opened his mouth wide and prepared to eat the mouse. "oh no, please don't eat me!" shrieked the mouse. "i'd be just a tiny snack, not fit for the king of the beasts. If only you will spare my life, i promise that i will help you if you are ever in trouble."

A little mouse, helping the big king of beasts? That struck the lion as terribly funny. He roared with laughter, opening his jaw and letting this funny little mouse go free.

Several years passed. The mouse was busy gathering seeds when he heard a terrible roar. It was so loud and so powerful that it could only be the king of beasts. What's more, the lion sounded really scared. The mouse scurried in the direction of the lion's frightened roars.

When the mouse found the lion, he saw that the lion had fallen into a hunter's trap. He was all tangled up in thick rope. The mouse began to gnaw through one of the ropes with his sharp little teeth. It took a while, but eventually he broke all the ropes and the lion was free.

"i kept my promise!" said the mouse to the lion. "i know i might be able to help you out sometime."

Snow white

Text for number 10-12

Once upon a time there lived a little girl named Snow White. She lived with her aunt and uncle because her parents were dead.

One day she heard her uncle and aunt talking about leaving Snow White in the castle because they both wanted to go to America and they didn't have enough money to take Snow White.

Snow White didn't want her uncle and aunt to do that so she decided that it would be best if she ran away. The next morning she ran away into the woods. She was very tired and hungry. Then she saw a little cottage. She knocked but no one answered so she went inside and fell asleep.

Meanwhile, the seven dwarfs were coming home from work. There they found Snow White sleeping. Then Snow White woke up. She saw the dwarfs.

The dwarfs said, "What is your name?"

Snow White said, "My name is Snow White."

Then, Snow White told the dwarfs the whole story.

The dwarfs said, “If you want, you may live here with us.”

Snow White answered, “Oh, could I? Thank you.”

Finally, Snow White and the seven dwarfs lived happily ever after.

The Legend of Surabaya

Text for number 20-23

A long time ago, there were two animals, Sura and Baya. Sura was the name of a shark and Baya was a crocodile. They lived in a sea.

Once Sura and Baya were looking for some food. Suddenly, Baya saw a goat.

“Yummy, this is my lunch,” said Baya.

“No way! This is my lunch. You are greedy” said Sura. Then they fought for the goat. After several hours, they were very tired.

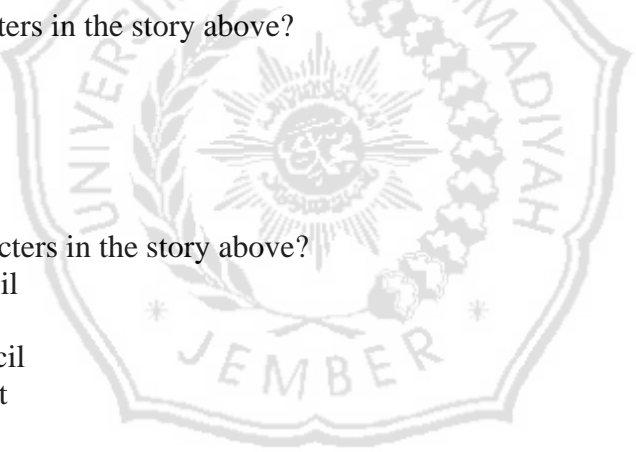

Feeling tired of fighting, they lived in the different places. Sura lived in the water and Baya lived in the land. The border was the beach, so they would never fight again.

One day, Sura went to the land and looked for some food in the river. He was very hungry and there was not much food in the sea. Baya was very angry when he knew that Sura broke the promise.

They fought again.

They both hit each other. Sura bite Baya's tail. Baya did the same thing to Sura. He bite very hard until Sura finally gave up and went back to the sea. Baya was happy.

Little Red Riding Hood

One day there was a little girl named little red riding hood. She was asked by her mother to deliver cake to her grandmother. When she was heading for his grandmother's house, little riding hood met a wolf. "Where are you going, a little girl?" The wolf asked. "I'm willing to give this cake to my grandmother" replied little riding hood.

The wolf had an evil plan that he wanted to eat them both. Then he ran through a shortcut to her grandmother's house. After arriving to grandmas' house, he knocked on her door. When Grandma opened the door, the wolf caught her and locked her in a closet. The bad wolf then wore Grandma's clothes and laid in bed, waiting for Little Red Riding Hood.

When little riding hood arrived, the wolf in disguise told her to come in. little riding hood did not realize that it was the wolf. Then the wolf ate a little riding hood and her grandmother. After eating them, the wolf fell asleep beside the river. Suddenly, a woodcutter came; he saw a large wolf's belly and knew what had been done by the wolf. Then he saved them by releasing them out from the belly of the wolf and filled the wolf's stomach with a big stone. Then he threw the wolf into the river.

The researcher continue to the second cycle. Right at 08.00 am April 23th 2018 the researcher come again in the same class, it is VIIIA class. Before the students come in to the class, the researcher already rearrange the students chair based on their group. And when the class begin, the researcher ask them start with greeting the students as usual by ask their condition “how are you today?” and the students respond it well “i am fine thankyou and you?” and i answer it “i am fine too thankyu” after that she check the students’ attendance list. She explains about narrative text, and also how important reading in daily life. Now the researcher is not nervous any more. She also explain the rules of learning together method clearly, because she speaks loudly. Students can understand it well. When there are some students are shy, not confidence with her or in the group, she ask all of students to do “senam sapi” or sometimes she motivate the students with short motivate story to make students enjoy the class, and interesting with the class. And it works, students can enjoy and feel more confidence, because they can make a good interaction with their member in the group. They are not shy any more to ask something that they think it is difficult. The discussion in the class is good. They help each other in a group , they share what their finding, and they get the good answer together for the text. But the researcher have to try other word to give reward to the students.
