Kabupaten Banyuwangi

This study aims to analyze the implementation of Village Fund utilization in infrastructure development in Sempu Village, Banyuwangi Regency. This study employs a qualitative descriptive method, with data collection techniques including interviews, observations, and documentation. The results indicate that the use of Village Funds in Sempu Village has been directed toward priorities aligned with community needs, particularly the construction of village roads, paving, drainage, and other supporting facilities that facilitate residents' activities, especially in the agricultural sector. Policy implementation is carried out through village deliberations, the execution of physical activities, and phased reporting. In general, policy objectives, resource availability, the attitudes of implementers, and inter-organizational communication have supported program implementation. Nevertheless, strengthening the capacity of village officials, coordination, and oversight are still needed to ensure that Village Fund management becomes more effective, transparent, and targeted. Thus, the Village Fund plays a crucial role in driving infrastructure development and improving the well-being of the community in Sempu Village.
