

ABSTRAK

Kemampuan pengelolaan keuangan merupakan keterampilan penting bagi mahasiswa dalam mencapai kesejahteraan finansial, namun pada kenyataannya masih ditemukan tingkat kemampuan yang rendah pada sebagian mahasiswa. Penelitian ini bertujuan untuk menganalisis pengaruh literasi keuangan, pendapatan, dan Islamic Social Finance (ISF) terhadap kesejahteraan finansial mahasiswa Fakultas Ekonomi dan Bisnis (FEB) Universitas Muhammadiyah Jember. Sampel penelitian sebanyak 278 responden dipilih menggunakan teknik proportional sampling berdasarkan rumus Slovin, dan data dianalisis menggunakan metode regresi linier berganda. Hasil penelitian menunjukkan bahwa literasi keuangan, pendapatan, dan Islamic Social Finance secara parsial berpengaruh positif dan signifikan terhadap kesejahteraan finansial. Dengan demikian, ketiga faktor tersebut perlu diperhatikan dalam upaya meningkatkan kesejahteraan finansial mahasiswa.

ABSTRACT

Financial management capability is an important skill for students in achieving financial well-being, yet in reality, a low level of this capability is still found among some students. This study aims to analyze the effect of financial literacy, income, and Islamic Social Finance (ISF) on the financial well-being of students at the Faculty of Economics and Business (FEB), Universitas Muhammadiyah Jember. A research sample of 278 respondents was selected using a proportional sampling technique based on the Slovin formula, and the data were analyzed using the multiple linear regression method. The results of the study show that financial literacy, income, and Islamic Social Finance partially have a positive and significant effect on financial well-being. Therefore, these three factors need to be considered in efforts to improve students' financial well-being.
